

Character Traits

Characterization

The method an author uses to create the appearance and personality of imaginary characters in a piece of fiction.

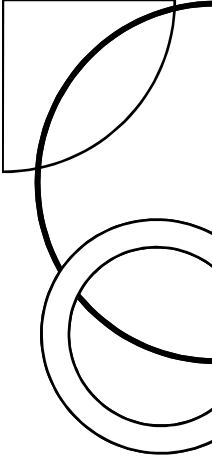

Character Traits

Qualities shown by characters

Physical Appearance

A description of what the character physically looks like.

-
- clothes they wear
 - facial features
 - height and weight
 - hair style and color
 - ethnic and cultural background, etc.

Speech, Thoughts and Actions

- how a character speaks
- habits
- tastes (likes and dislikes)
- talents and abilities
- thoughts they think to themselves
- how they interact with other characters

Reaction of other Characters

- how other characters react to a certain character
- what other characters' relationship is with a certain character
- what impression a certain character makes on other characters
- thoughts other characters have about a certain character

